Your Customers Are Already on WhatsApp.

Why Isn't Your Business Using It Better?

Your customers ask questions.

They request prices.

They want product details.

They need support.

They follow up on orders.

And your team keeps answering the same questions again and again.

UwoConnect changes that.

Connect your WhatsApp Business and create a smarter customer communication system that works 24/7.

From the first message to the final payment, manage the entire customer journey from one dashboard.

More Than WhatsApp Automation.

It's Your Complete Customer Communication Hub.

UwoConnect brings the tools your business needs to turn conversations into revenue.

💬 WhatsApp Business

Connect your official WhatsApp Business API and manage customer conversations at scale.

Send messages, images, documents, catalogs and payment links- without managing multiple devices.

🤖 Smart Automation

Never leave customers waiting.

Create automated replies, keyword-based responses, FAQs, welcome messages and out-of-office flows that work around the clock.

Customer says “Pricing”? → Automatically send your catalog.

Customer says “Location”? → Send your business location.

Customer asks a common question? → Let automation answer instantly.

📢 WhatsApp Broadcasts

Reach hundreds or thousands of customers with targeted campaigns.

Promote:

- New products
- Offers
- Events
- Announcements
- Product launches
- Seasonal campaigns

Send the right message to the right audience at scale.

👥 Shared Team Inbox

One WhatsApp number. One inbox. Your entire team.

Assign conversations, respond faster and keep every customer interaction organized.

No more:

“Who is handling this customer?”

Turn Conversations Into Customers.

Your Chat Shouldn't End With “Thanks for Asking.”

With UwoConnect, your WhatsApp conversations can become the beginning of a complete sales journey.

01. Capture the Lead

Automatically collect and organize customer enquiries.

02. Manage the Customer

Track conversations, add notes, assign team members and manage customer details.

03. Showcase Your Products

Send your product catalog directly inside the conversation.

04. Send a Quote

Create professional quotations and send them instantly.

05. Close the Deal

Turn approved quotations into invoices.

06. Get Paid

Share secure payment links and collect payments directly from your customers.

One Conversation. One Complete Sales Journey.

Your CRM, Inside Your Conversations.

Don't Just Chat With Leads. Manage Them.

Every enquiry is an opportunity.

UwoConnect's built-in CRM helps your team organize leads, track sales stages and follow up at the right time.

Capture → Qualify → Follow Up → Convert

Keep track of:

- Customer information
- Lead stages
- Internal notes
- Assigned team members
- Previous conversations
- Follow-up status
- Sales opportunities

No lead gets lost in the chat.

Sell Directly Through WhatsApp.

Your Products. Your Catalog. Your Customers.

Create your digital product catalog and share products directly in customer conversations.

Add:

Product Name • Price • Description • Images • Categories

Then send your products directly to customers on WhatsApp.

Make it easier for customers to:

Discover → Ask → Choose → Buy

Automate the Questions Your Team Answers Every Day.

Let Automation Handle the Repetition.

Let Your Team Handle the Relationships.

Set up automated workflows for common customer queries.

Example:

Customer: “Price?”

UwoConnect: “Sure! Here is our latest catalog 👇”

Customer: “Location?”

UwoConnect: “We're located at…”

Customer: “Talk to an agent.”

UwoConnect: “Sure. Connecting you with our team now.”

Your business keeps responding.

Even when your team isn't online.

Broadcast Smarter.

Reach More Customers Without More Manual Work.

Create targeted WhatsApp campaigns and communicate with your audience at scale.

Promote offers, announce launches, re-engage old customers and keep your audience updated.

One campaign.

Thousands of potential conversations.

Create → Target → Send → Track

From WhatsApp Message to Payment.

Don't Make Customers Jump Between Apps.

UwoConnect connects your customer communication with your business operations.
